DAV Sports Talent Identification Strategy & Development Framework

DAV Sports' Talent Identification plan is practical, scalable, and aligned with the vision of building DAV Sports as a flagship vertical.

The goal is not just to find current performers, but to identify future athletes with the right mix of physical ability, skills, mindset and a vision for a career in sports.

To systematically identify, nurture, and develop sporting talent across DAV schools, creating a self-sustaining ecosystem for sports excellence

1. Foundation Stage
2. Talent Identification stage
3. Exploration Stage
4. Performance Stage
5. Excellence Stage

DAV Sports Talent Identification Strategy & Development Framework

- 1. Foundation Stage - Screening of all students (Classes V–X) once a year, preferably in April, for the identification of the top one fourth of the total strength of the school
  - 30m Sprint (for Speed)
  - Shuttle Run 4×10m (for Agility)
  - Standing Broad Jump ( for Power)
  - Sit & Reach (for Flexibility)
  - 600m Run / Beep Test (for Endurance)
- 2. Talent Identification out of the top short listed one fourth students of the strength, through the selection/screening for the categorisation into High Potential & Developing Talent
  - Sport-specific trials
  - Teacher/coach observations
  - Basic anthropometric profiling (assessment of body structure and growth patterns)
- 3. Exploration Stage for High Potential + Developing Talent after Identification of best-fit sport out of multiple sports
  - Exposure to atleast 2 sports per child

• Inter house → Cluster → state → DAV National → National (India) → International

ITEM OF THE AGENDA - 07

To consider the proposal regarding the 'international participation policy' for DAV Students (Boys & Girls)

International policy for student participation in sports abroad is governed by a multi-layered framework of human rights charters, global intergovernmental agreements, and specific regulations from international sports federations.

International policy framework for Participation of DAV Students (Boys & Girls)

It's a matter of National pride

International policy framework for Participation of DAV Students (Boys & Girls)

DAV foresees international exposure of the students through

- Exchange programs (sports)
- Junior international tournaments (Sports)

1. -  International School Sport Federation (ISF); This body promotes school sport as an educational tool and organises international competitions for younger students, emphasizing fair play and cultural development.
2.  International University Sports Federation (FISU) governs the World University Games. Standard eligibility typically requires students to be between 18 and 25 years old, be citizens of the country they represent, or be enrolled in a university in that country.
3. International Federations (IFs): Organisations like FIFA or World Aquatics manage the everyday technical rules and monitoring of their specific disciplines at the global level.

International policy framework for Participation of DAV Students (Boys & Girls)

Travel Formalities

1. Apply for a sports visa of the host country along with :

- Invitation letter from organisers
- Selection certificate
- Passport & documents

2. Clearance from:

- Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports (India)
- Sports Authority of India (SAI)

3. Anti-Doping Compliance

4. Medical & Fitness Clearance

International policy framework for Participation of DAV Students (Boys & Girls)

Important

- APPROVAL OF DAVCMC FOR INTERNATIONAL PARTICIPATION OF THE STUDENTS
- EXPENDITURE OF TRAVELS, ETC. BY THE CONCERNED SCHOOL
- UNDERTAKING FROM THE PARENTS
- CONTINUOUS SUPERVISION (Maintaining a 24/7 "duty of care)
- LEGAL RESPONSIBILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY
- Confirmation that all accompanying adults have passed recent Background Checks

(School heads must submit a legal undertaking accepting full responsibility for student safety/security during the trip)
